

Dame Fashion, Dictator—

The season's American Lady Corset models are pronounced the most shapely that Dame Fashion has allowed for some seasons. These new American Lady Corset models, to a large extent, follow the natural lines of the figure, so that the woman is normally corseted. There are American Lady Corsets in an almost unlimited range of styles. Among them is one or more models which will be perfect for "your" needs.

Prices range
$1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00
$2.50, $3.00

Just ask to see your model — it will afford you style, service and satisfaction.

WEST BRATTLEBORO

A. F. Hill returned Friday evening from a week's visit in Springfield (Vt.) and Charlestown. While in Charlestown he attended the fair.

Miss Delia Miller and Mrs. H. E. Newcomb and son and daughter moved Saturday to the east village, in P. Fleming's house on Oak street.

Mrs. Charlotte Throver, nurse, who had been caring for Miss Susan Clark, who is confined to her home with a sprained ankle, finished work there Saturday.

Charles Dalrymple underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Melrose hospital Saturday morning. He is comfortable. Dr. Lynch was assisted by Dr. Hunter.

The Twentieth Century club will meet with Mrs. C. M. Hamilton tomorrow afternoon. This is the first meeting after the three-months' vacation and there will be plenty of work for all.

Mrs. Gilbert Bridges and infant son of Hyde Park, Mass., were discharged from the Melrose hospital Sunday and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maylan of Oak Grove avenue.

Miss Bernice Marsh has returned from the Memorial hospital, where she had been following an operation. Mrs. Frank Marsh will move her goods this week to Waterbury, Conn., where Mr. Marsh has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knight, Mrs. Edward Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas of Croyden, Ill., went by automobile Saturday to Springfield, Mass., where they were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sanders.

A new piano was installed in Academy hall Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the school, which will appreciate the gift from a few enterprising women of this village who have arranged a series of entertainments during the winter to defray the expense.

TOWNSHEND.

Boe Watson is in school again, after an absence of a few days because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowe and Howard were at the home of E. B. Batchelder Sunday.

Delia Lawrence, who is attending the seminary, spent the week-end at her home in Grafton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis of Brattleboro were at the home of his father, Orion Davis, Sunday.

Cora Morse and her father, George Morse of Wardsboro, visited Sunday at Walter Morse's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nothup were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Truesdell Saturday evening.

The severe frost Sunday night is appreciated by the hunters, for all report "no luck" as the leaves are so thick they are afraid to shoot at anything they are lucky enough to see.

The pupils in Miss Marion Winslow's room in the graded school gave her a picnic dinner at the schoolhouse Saturday as it was too cold to have it on the common as planned. All sorts of good things were served, including salad, ice-cream, etc.

GREEN RIVER.

Warner W. Wisley, one of the oldest Civil war veterans in Feeding Hills, Mass., died Sept. 22 at his home. He lived in that town 14 years, going there from Vermont. He was 76 years old. He leaves one son, Warren W. Wisley of Feeding Hills, Conn., and one brother, L. S. Wisley of Green River.

Cork platforms have been invented to add to the comfort of traffic policemen in wet streets.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

The M. W. A. will hold a dance tomorrow evening in Red Men's hall.

The Ladies' circle of the Universalist church will serve a harvest supper Thursday, Oct. 5, from 6.15 to 8.

The women of the Baptist church have changed the date of their rummage sale to Friday and Saturday, Oct. 27 and 28.

The season's list of attractions issued by the White Entertainment bureau contains a picture of Ethel "Peggy" Costello, concert soprano, formerly of Brattleboro.

E. N. Nason of 65 Central street picked a head of seeds from a sunflower plant in his garden recently which measured 43 inches in circumference and 14 inches in diameter.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will hold its first meeting of the season in the parish house Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

Ten friends of Ray L. Mixer gave him a dinner party at the close of business Saturday evening, at the Albany cafe. Mr. Mixer went Sunday to Northampton, where he has a position in a shoe store.

Today the Empire presents William Farnum in the Fox feature, Fighting Blood, a virile story of the Kentucky mountains. Tomorrow Grace Currier will be seen in The Leap, a chapter in Peg O' the Ring series.

Today the Princess theatre presents Fannie Ward in the Paramount picture, The Gutter Magdalene, also a Burton Holmes travel picture, The Pasig River. Tomorrow Carlyle Blackwell and Ethel Clayton in the new world Brady-made feature, A Woman's Way, will be presented.

William F. Sexton pleaded guilty to intoxication in the municipal court this morning. A fine of $15 and costs of $7.05 with a sentence of 30 days in the county jail was imposed by Judge Frank E. Barber. Upon payment of the costs and signing the pledge for one year the fine and jail sentence were suspended.

Frank Fiske Derby, 53, died in his home in Dorchester, Mass., Sunday morning after an illness of about a year, following the amputation of one leg. He was a son of Capt. I. W. Derby and a brother of Mrs. Jean J. Vanderveer of Brattleboro. He was a 32d degree Mason. He leave, besides his wife, four daughters and a son. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderveer and Capt. Derby will go tomorrow by automobile to Dorchester to attend the funeral.

The steering knuckle on August Wilson's automobile broke yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock as he was driving the machine down the hill on the road from Lake Spofford to Hinsdale near the Fiske homestead. He was not driving fast at the time and fortunately the car turned against a bank on one side of the road instead of shooting across and going down a steep embankment. Mr. Wilson was accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Bemis. Neither of the occupants was injured and the car was not damaged.

The Ladies of the Universalist church will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7 in the room formerly occupied by the American Express company. A team will call for the things Wednesday morning if Mrs. Emily Edwards or Mrs. Fred Sargent are notified.—Adv.

Posters have been issued for a dance to be held in Academy hall, West Brattleboro, next Wednesday evening. Music will be furnished by Maynard's orchestra of Keene.

Tomatoes for canning. C. N. Bond, Florist.—Adv.

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

Such men seek smoke-comfort

WHEN YOU stop to realize the number of sound, conservative men who have changed over to Fatimas in the last six months, it surely indicates that Fatimas must offer something no other cigarette can offer.

Perhaps you haven't thought of it this way:

Do you know any other cigarette that is always cool and comfortable? Do you know any other cigarette beside Fatimas that leaves a man feeling fine and "fit" even after a long-smoking day?

It is these qualities that make Fatimas truly sensible.

Triple Auto Collision.

Fred Kelly, driving his car, collided with two other automobiles Sunday noon at the corner of Main and Bridge streets. Kelly's car had a bent axle, radiator damaged and mudguards bent. The drivers of the cars settled the affair among themselves.

Mrs. Mattie Woolley, widow of Charles L. Woolley, died of liver trouble at the home of a cousin in Belknap Falls Friday evening. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Woolley lived in Chester, where he was a farmer. Mrs. Woolley was past president of Henry Woman's Relief corps. The funeral was held here Sunday and members of the Woman's Relief corps attended.

TWO CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Negro and Boy in Jail — Mother and Daughter Alleged Victims.

MANCHESTER CENTER, Vt., Oct. 2.—Calvin Williams, a colored man who has lately been employed with the Rich Lumber company in the mountains and Frank Douglas, 15, are in the Manchester jail charged with assault upon Mrs. Ernest Cappin and her nine-year-old daughter. It is alleged that Williams, having come down from the woods Thursday, obtained drink in Rutland and returned here, making things hot about town. In company with Douglas, he is said to have entered the house of Mrs. Cappin and attacked her while she lay sick in bed, and the same conduct is charged against Douglas with regard to the nine-year-old daughter, who was with her mother. After being driven from the house by Mr. Cappin, the two men started for the mountains but were overtaken near the Langton Landing and brought back by Deputy Sheriff J. D. Purdy.

LOYAL FARRAGUT DEAD.

Son of the Famous Admiral Was Summer Resident of Ashfield.

ASHFIELD, Mass., Oct. 2. — Loyal Farragut, 75, son of Admiral David Glasgow Farragut, died in his summer home here yesterday. Mr. Farragut had spent his summers here for 29 years and during the winter had lived in New York in the house presented to his father by the people of New York city.

Mr. Farragut was born in Norfolk, Va., and was appointed to a cadetship at West Point by President Lincoln. After serving for a time in the army he accepted a position with the New York Central railroad, retiring after the death of his wife in 1899. He was his father's biographer.

DIGGERS FIND SKULL.

Other Bones Also Uncovered in Gravel Pit in Berlin.

MONTPELIER, Oct. 2.—While loading gravel on a farm in Berlin near the Montpelier line Saturday city workmen uncovered a human skull and bones. An investigation will be instituted to ascertain if possible whose skeleton it is. State's Attorney Gleason, and the Berlin selectmen were notified and took charge of the gruesome find. The skull will be sent to the state laboratory at Burlington for examination.

Sporting Notes.

It's all over in the American league. Hail to the Red Sox!

The old veteran left hander, Tyler, was the man to finally stop the Giants. "Tilly" Walker, center fielder, turned in a double play unassisted Saturday, an unusual feat.

A rubber game next Sunday between Brattleboro and Millers Falls would be an attraction worth while to close the season.

Is Cobb slowing up? He leads the American league again in stolen bases, but his total is only 65 as against 96 a year ago.

Weather permitting, The Reformer will bulletin Saturday afternoon the first of the world's series games as has been done in the past.

The Braves did it finally. The Giants' winning streak was good for 26 straight, however, before the Boston boys could shut off the draft.

Keene high won its first football game of the season Saturday defeating a team of former high school players, 28 to 0. Jones and Kibbee starred.

Coumbe, former Red Sox twirler, was the Cleveland twirler who set the White Sox out of the race yesterday and helped his former mates to final victory by so doing.

Felsch of the White Sox waited Saturday until the 12th inning of the second game with Cleveland before he drove out a home run with the bases full.

LeGore started well for Yale Saturday. On the first play after the kick-off he circled an end of the Carnegie Tech team and ran 70 yards for a touchdown.

Mack has uncovered a new slugger. Thrasher in two games against Washington pitchers landed on the ball for three doubles, a triple and a single. Thrasher is right.

Moran, if he wins the pennant in the National league, will be forced to fight for the world's series pennant without the services of young Baneroff, who was hurt Saturday. Stallings got along without "Red" Smith two years ago, it will be remembered.

SWAPS STOCK FOR OLD AUTO.

New Hampshire Farmer Gives Animals for Second-Hand Car.

So badly did Harold Harvey, farmer, of Croyden Flats, N. H., feel the need of touring the country in modern style that he has just purchased a Ford automobile, slightly second-hand. He gave for it:

16 Yorkshire pigs.
2 horses.
2 cows.
3 2-year-old heifers.
3 calves.
1 horse rake, in excellent condition.
1 horse-hoe.
1 cultivator, latest model.
